Yukon Teams Capture Medals As Games Draw to a Close

Curling: Yukon men's and women's curling teams were awarded gold and silver medals respectively to close out the curling action at the 2008 Games. Both teams faced Northern Alberta in the gold medal games today at the Yellowknife Arena. The men's team had been playing steady all week and were doing the same in the first five ends of the gold medal match. They got a break in the sixth end, managing to steal five and giving them a seven point lead heading into the final four ends.

The women's game was a closer affair. Both teams played well and made some great shots throughout the game. Northern Alberta had the last rock advantage in the 10th end and their skip had to make her final shot to win the gold medal. She did so and the Yukon women's curling team came away with a silver medal.

Volleyball: The Yukon women's team worked extremely hard to earn a bronze medal over team Greenland. After losing the first two sets they worked their way back to victory in the next three games.

Hockey: At the multiplex the bantam and midget hockey teams both earned silver medals in their respect final games.

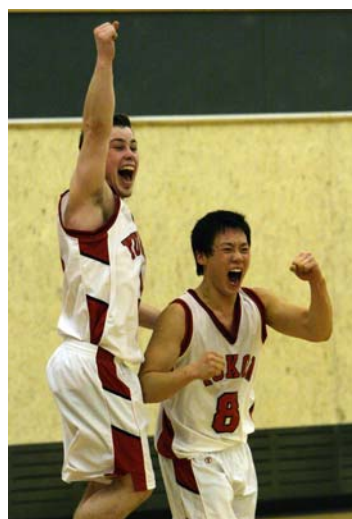

Basketball: The men's basketball team won the gold medal in a nail-biting double-overtime game. Final score 95-87. The women's basketball team settled for the silver after a loss to Yamal 91-60.
